Dear Sirs:

According to an article in the daily papers, I have had an "unpleasant encounter" in the funeral business. Many being one of the factors, Stewart Enterprises, with one residence called "All Faiths Funeral Home, 5200 Canal Blvd, 70124, in genius, has, by devious and underhanded, methods, increased the burial by twelve-fold.

To cite one example, without my permission, put a cartel (PRESTON) flowers on the casket, and many of the other items were actually exorbitant, costing 4 surviving [illegible] and no arm.

Can anything be done to curtail these practices?

Sincerely,
William Williamson
