

MARK D. WHITENER

Mark Whitener is Antitrust Counsel for General Electric Company, a position he has held since 1997. From 1993 to 1997 Mark Whitener was Deputy Director of the Federal Trade Commission's Bureau of Competition, where he was responsible for a variety of antitrust cases and policy initiatives and helped develop federal antitrust guidelines for mergers, health care, intellectual property and international enforcement.

He has spent several years in private practice with Steptoe & Johnson in Washington and spent a year at Linklaters & Paines in London prior to joining the FTC.