

While I think it is a good idea to have pornographic SPAM labeled, there should be stronger restrictions on it being sent in the first place. Pornography, in every other venue, has to be sought out by a person interested in seeing it. Only on the internet can a person see pornography without trying to. I appreciate your efforts, I only wish they were of a stronger measure.

Thank you,
Jaime Knieper