

Please allow contact lens users to have a copy of their prescription from their eye doctors. To do otherwise is unfair. This competition will hold prices down and make it easier for the consumer to get a good product. There is no good reason for the eye doctors to have a monopoly on selling this product.

Thank You,

Chris Lindley

Oregon