

I wanted to write in favor of requiring an eye doctor to give all patients a copy of their prescription. We go in for an eye appointment and should leave with a prescription. If I go to get my haircut somewhere, they don't require that I buy my shampoo and hair spray from them. This is no different... and there are hundreds of other similar examples.

Regards, Jeff Thomas

Jeffrey R. Thomas
President
Sports Buff LLC

A Decade of Excellence