Subject: Contact lens rule

Please do not a law that puts a restriction on when and how people can obtain contact lens or for any other goods for that matter. By the time I need to re-order contacts it's because I'm down to the last pair. If I tear or loose a lens I need to be able to get new lens as quickly as possible. Don't cave to the special interests of those that would like to restrict the ability of people to search out and obtain the best service and best products a the best price.

Thank you for your consideration;

Donald McNeill
