Subject: Fairness to Contact Lens Consumers Act of 2003

I urge the FTC to back this new law. It is very unfair to contact lens users, especially casual users like myself, to pay larger fees because the doctor wants me to buy the lenses from him. They are no different from the bulk distributors except that the physician makes more money. Insurance only covers so much. I once went to an office where they were trying to sell me entire cleaning packages before the doctor even examined me!!! It was very insulting.

Thank you.
