To Whom It May Concern:

I get about 250 spams a day and sometimes more. Most of the emails I get (I would venture a guess at 99%) is spam. A lot of it is downright pornography and I believe that "free speech" should stop when it is unsolicited. A lot of it selling prescriptions, etc. I don't need to have all this on my computer. I have put in a lot of money on this thing and I consider it my personal property. The stuff coming in is coming into my home!

Why can't they just send them to people who request it? I am a Christian and I am deeply offended by a lot of the "xxx".

Thank you.
