Dear Sirs,

I am one that is very much against spyware and adware that pop up ALL the time.
Even when I'm in my so-called, online locked game, it gets through and messes with my controls :(((
This is a definite INVASION OF PRIVACY and should stop altogether, plain and simple.

If I want to know about the things that are getting spammed, I will go to a site that sells it ON MY OWN. My computer totally freezes up due to these "INVASIONS."
As well as the email spams.....total GARBAGE and a WASTE of time, energy, and space. Jeesh.
The people that condone this garbage spamming are just that....garbage.

Just my humble opinion.
