

michael cornell

Tue 5/18/2004 1:00 AM

For what its worth ,,Im against Spyware on Computers because Information and statistics can be twisted and misread,,and it is too easy to get into a persons personel records and it may not even be that person that was using the computer all the times information was gathered on them,,how do they know whos doing what?